

5. One of this god's children was known as the "great runner," and shared his name with a blue-skinned male

20. A plan to groom this man for Felix Grundy's senate seat went awry when, while tasked with impressing Grundy during a night at the theater, he initiated a violent assault that ended with him lifting another man up by his legs and beating him

BONUSES:!

!

1. One author from this country penned the stories “The Night, the Prowler” and “A Woman’s Hand,” both

9. Glaciation probably led to the Hangenberg portion of this event, which was mostly kicked off by the Kellwasser event. For 10 points each:!

[10] Identify this series of major extinctions that took place during the Famennian stage of its namesake epoch. It led to the wiping out of such awesome creatures as the armored fish Dunkleosteus!

ANSWER:

13. The Rabinovich-Fabrikant equations may display this phenomenon, depending on the parameters. For 10 points each:!

[10] Identify this phenomenon in which a system displays high sensitivity to initial conditions. Edward Lorenz analogized be

17. At this location, which is described as a “heathen temple”, a character kisses another to avoid answering the